

APPLICATION FORM
April 28th and 29th, 2012 - Entry Level Referee Training Program

Fees and Terms of Application

FEES

Registration $70.00 payable to the "Unionville Milliken Soccer Club". Payment of the fee and participation in the training program does not guarantee the Applicant will become certified as a referee. The applicants must participate and apply themselves in the training program, and pass the entry level referee training session in order to become certified as a referee.

TERMS of APPLICATION

The Unionville Milliken Soccer Club ("UMSC") reserves the right in its complete discretion to reject or accept an applicant for referee training, and acceptance of this Application for processing does not guarantee entry into the training program, regardless of when the Application is received.

The UMSC may in its discretion maintain waiting lists and call applicants as selected for participation in the program.

All Applications must be signed and accompanied by the specified fee, to be processed.

Applicants must be prepared to provide a copy of their birth certificate on request.

REGISTRATION

Applicants who are accepted will be registered (as players) with the Ontario Soccer Association for the 2012 season, in order to provide them with insurance for their participation in this training program.
